This year, you made all the difference in the world.

The difference in whether a frail Holocaust survivor had enough to eat.

The difference in whether a struggling family had a roof overhead.

The difference in whether young parents found a welcoming connection to Jewish life, a college student embraced their Jewish identity and a teen discovered ways to change the world.

You, through your donation to the 2018 Jewish United Fund Annual Campaign, made all of that possible.

And so much more.

Together, you and tens of thousands of fellow community members—including nearly 4,000 new donors—contributed a record $88,885,238 to the 2018 Campaign, nearly $2 million more than last year and the ninth consecutive year of growth.

And that makes all the difference to more than 500,000 Chicagoans of all faiths, and millions of Jews in Israel and across the globe.

Those funds, along with supplemental grants from foundations and a wide array of other sources, helped care for the elderly, feed the hungry, treat the sick, sustain families in crisis, offer support to people with disabilities, aid Jewish schoolchildren and campers, and rescue and resettle immigrants in Israel.

The JUF Annual Campaign is the foundational, community component of JUF/Federation’s multi-faceted financial resource development efforts, which secured $334,224,085 in total revenue in FY2019. In addition to donations from individuals and corporate partners, this includes grants from foundations, the government and United Way, plus distributions from Donor Advised Funds and Supporting Foundations. It also includes generous bequests and endowment gifts which will further strengthen the foundation upon which future generations of Chicago’s Jewish community will build.

AN HISTORIC TRANSITION

In a pivotal moment for Chicago’s Jewish community, on July 1, 2019, Lonnie Nasatir became President of the Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation of Chicago—only the fifth person in the institution’s 119-year history to serve in the role.

As the Anti-Defamation League’s longtime Regional Director of the six-state Greater Chicago/Upper Midwest area, Lonnie distinguished himself as a community leader in fighting antisemitism and all forms of bigotry. A hallmark of his leadership has been his focus on engaging the next generation and his commitment to promoting institutional diversity.

Prior to his tenure at ADL, Lonnie served as Administrator for the Illinois Department of Public Aid (now the Department of Healthcare and Family Services), Division of Child Support Enforcement. He began his career as a prosecutor for the Cook County State’s Attorney’s Office.

Lonnie was selected after an intensive national search launched in June 2018, when the JUF/Federation board appointed a search committee, comprised exclusively of lay leaders and chaired by Past Chairman of the Board Michael Zaransky.

In addition to his exceptional track record as a community leader, Lonnie brings extraordinary vision, energy and commitment to bear in leading this Federation and Chicago’s Jewish community.

The future looks bright indeed.

Andrew S. Hochberg
Chairman of the Board
This incredible generosity from our community made possible the allocation of $248,824,931 during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2019. Highlights include:

- $30,571,075 through the Jewish Federation of Chicago to fund local human services; $18,873,872 to fund Jewish education, continuity, identity-building, outreach and advocacy programs and $1,014,320 in Breakthrough Fund grants to support innovative initiatives that break new ground in Jewish life;

- $29,063,424 through JUF devoted to help millions of Jews in Israel and 70 countries worldwide; and

- $103,117,519 allocated to charitable ventures worldwide in partnership with our Donor Advised Funds and Supporting Foundations.

These allocations helped safeguard Jewish lives and sustain Jewish life, fueling a dynamic, enduring community that comes together for good.

President since 1979, and just the fourth chief executive in the institution’s 119-year history, Dr. Nasatir grew JUF into the hub of one of the largest humanitarian networks in the nation.

Throughout the years, his actions often set the Jewish world in motion. As historic events unfolded—such as the exodus of more than a million Soviet Jews and the rescue of Jews from Ethiopia and Yemen—Dr. Nasatir always was the first to commit community resources.

During his tenure, JUF/Federation raised more than $8 billion to provide help, hope and healing to countless people in need.

Luckily for the Jewish community, his remarkable legacy continues to unfold: Effective July 1, 2019, Dr. Nasatir assumed the new role of Executive Vice Chairman, where he is continuing with a number of projects, including devoting significant attention to accelerating Jewish Chicago's investment in outreach and engagement of the next generation through the Fund for the Future.

BUILDING A BRIGHT JEWISH FUTURE

Chaired by Bill Silverstein, the Fund for the Future was launched in early 2019, seeking to raise tens of millions of dollars from visionary donors to quickly infuse needed capital into gateway experiences for young Jews over the next five years.

It is an initiative many years in the making. Over the last decade, JUF and our community partners have intensified our commitment to engaging young Jewish adults, pioneering and investing in wide-ranging programs to make Jewish life more accessible and affordable, from JUF Right Start preschool gift vouchers and free monthly PJ Library books for young families, to scholarships for Jewish summer camp and Jewish Day Schools for youth, to the Ta'am Yisrael 8th Grade Israel Trip and Springboard alternative spring breaks for teens, to Hillels of Illinois and JUF Birthright Israel trips for young adults.

Now that we have developed this experience and expertise, we are ready to take local Jewish engagement to the next level.

Initially, community members were invited to contribute to the Fund for the Future in tribute to Dr. Nasatir’s presidency. To date, over $54 million has been raised, an incredible testament to his legacy as well as Jewish Chicago’s generosity. All gifts to the Fund are recognized as gifts to the Jewish Federation Centennial Campaign.
The Centennial Campaign reached an extraordinary milestone in 2019, surpassing the $1 billion mark. To date, the initiative has raised over $1.1 billion from nearly 5,800 capital and endowment gifts.

As The Centennial Campaign enters its 20th year, it has forever changed the landscape of Jewish Chicago—and leaves our community with a debt of gratitude to Corky Goodman, who has chaired The Centennial Campaign since its inception.

Thanks to an extraordinary array of Centennial Campaign capital projects, the community now boasts a spectacular new Jewish skyline: from the Michigan Avenue home of Spertus Institute to Uptown’s Dina & Eli Field EZRA Multi-Service Center and JUF Uptown Café; from JCFS Chicago’s Abe & Ida Cooper Center and Joy Faith Knapp Children’s Center in Rogers Park to Newberger Hillel at University of Chicago.

“As The Centennial Campaign enters its 20th year, it has forever changed the landscape of Jewish Chicago.”

New Centennial Campaign-funded facilities are infusing added vitality into the Jewish community throughout the Chicago metropolitan area and beyond, from JCFS Chicago’s Elaine Kersten Children’s Center and JCC Marvin Lustbader Center for Health, Wellness & Fitness in Northbrook to Elaine Frank Apachi J Camp in Lake Zurich/Long Grove to the Margie K. & Louis N. Cohen Center for Jewish Life at The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

In addition to new and improved facilities, The Centennial Campaign has served as a catalyst for many of Jewish Chicago’s social service agencies to start endowment foundations, ensuring their capacity to provide life-transforming services for generations to come.

In terms of Jewish education, The Centennial Campaign has been a game-changer. Since 2003, more than $20 million has been distributed to the 17 Federation-supported day schools from the innovative Jewish Day School Guaranty Trust Fund—and four individual day school endowment foundations raised more than $14 million. In addition, the many day school capital campaigns over the last two decades have brought in $78 million to support Ida Crown Jewish Academy, Chicago Jewish Day School (CJDS), Rochelle Zell Jewish High School, Solomon Schechter, JDBY/YTT and Hillel Torah.

A NEW REALITY

As we sustain Jewish life today and build for tomorrow, we understand that part of our responsibility to the Jewish future is keeping our community safe.

The painful reality is that this year we gathered together to grieve too many times. The senseless murders of 12 Jews at prayer in Pittsburgh and Poway were the low points of a year in which waves of antisemitism and hate washed over our community.

On November 1, a standing-room only crowd of 1,800 Chicagoans of all faiths came together in response to the Shabbat massacre at Pittsburgh’s Tree of Life*Or L’Simcha Congregation. JUF’s Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) sponsored the gathering, held at the Swissôtel Chicago, where leaders of the Jewish, Christian and Muslim faith communities, along with Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel, spoke to the lunchtime crowd. Those in attendance included elected officials at every level of government. An additional 1,800 community members live-streamed the event on Facebook.

Six months later, after yet another terror attack at a U.S. synagogue, 1,000 community members packed the ballroom of Skokie’s Holiday Inn North Shore—on 24 hours’ notice—to stand in solidarity after the deadly shooting at Chabad of Poway, California. The event, which was sponsored by Lubavitch Chabad of Illinois in cooperation with JUF and others, once again broke our hearts but strengthened our community’s resolve.
Jewish Chicago will not be frightened away from participating in Jewish life and community—and JUF’s multi-faceted Security Assistance Program for local Jewish institutions is helping to ensure that.

From 2017 to 2019, JUF has awarded over $1.6 million in matching grants to 88 local institutions serving over 37,000 people—wide-ranging schools, synagogues, community centers, camps and agencies representing our community’s geographic, service delivery and denominational diversity. That $1.6 million leveraged an additional $2.3 million in matching funds from those 88 groups, yielding nearly $4 million of new, improved security, from equipment to security guards, for Jewish Chicago.

“It is incumbent upon us to stand up, step up and defend the Jewish people.”

JUF also helps make additional financial resources available to local Jewish institutions by providing assistance in applying for grants through the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, to date helping to garner 250 grants totaling over $20 million for 99 local Jewish sites.

In addition, JUF regularly provides individual security consultations for local synagogues, Jewish schools, preschools and agencies, and cooperates seamlessly with federal, state and local law enforcement to help safeguard our community. Working with these partners, JUF convenes regular security summits to further enhance security for local Jewish institutions.

The shootings in Pittsburgh and Poway did not happen in a vacuum; they emerged from a slow and sickening appeasement of antisemitism in today’s society, where hate-filled extremes—both on the far right and the far left—find common ground in hating Jews.

In 2019, antisemitic editorial cartoons were published in mainstream media and hate-filled memes went viral on social media; a rapid-fire string of political candidates, elected officials and celebrities accused Jews of dual loyalty and depicted Jews lusting after wads of cash; swastikas were emblazoned on garage doors in Bolingbrook and Buena Park; Molotov cocktails were lobbed at a Lakeview synagogue and JCC.

The darkest chapters in Jewish history have shown that hateful words lead to hateful deeds, and 2019 horribly proved the point. It is incumbent upon us to stand up, step up and defend the Jewish people.

ELEVATING THE CONVERSATION

That defense begins on college campuses, which can become incubators for antisemitism when students, professors and administrators do not demand boundaries between discourse about Israel and hate directed at Jews.

In 2019, JUF’s Israel Education Center (IEC) partnered with JCRC and the national Israel Action Network to initiate foundational conversations with Illinois university leaders, touching on the critical distinctions between criticism of Israel and anti-Zionism, and between free speech and hate speech; the uptick in antisemitism that often results from anti-Israel activism; and the anti-Israel tactic of perverting the concept of intersectionality to demonize Jewish students.

To ensure that more campus leaders have an informed understanding of Israel, there is no substitute for experiencing the reality on the ground. This year, Chicago sent 70 participants on Onward Israel, a JUF-supported program offering exciting, two-month summer internships in Tel Aviv for Jewish college students. The program, which has grown in leaps and bounds in the five years since it began, enables students to build their professional experience while deepening their connections to Israel.

In addition, this was the second year IEC brought five 25-member Interfaith Student Leadership Delegations to Israel—drawing from DePaul, Loyola, Northwestern, The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and The University of Chicago—helping to lay the groundwork for more nuanced conversations about Israel in the years to come.
These are just a few of the many ways IEC serves as a vital resource, helping to elevate the Israel narrative and ensure that Jewish students feel safe engaging in Jewish life and discourse on campus.

As horrifying as antisemitism is in the U.S., the situation is grim in other nations across the globe. Propelled by an accelerating torrent of antisemitic vandalism and violence, over 30,000 Jews immigrated to Israel last year—including thousands from Western Europe and Latin America. JUF helps bring new immigrants to Israel and deliver them services, from Hebrew classes to housing, that enhance their integration into society. In turn, these newcomers enrich Israel with their presence, helping strengthen the Jewish State in the years to come.

In addition to serving immigrants, JUF helps tens of thousands of disadvantaged Israelis break the cycle of poverty. In 2019, JUF supported extensive services for seniors, people with disabilities and other at-risk populations, particularly in our Partnership Together region of Kiryat Gat-Lachish-Shafir.

For six years, JUF’s flagship Israel Children’s Zone® (ICZ) program has helped to dramatically narrow scholastic gaps for underperforming youth at all public elementary schools in the Partnership region. In 2019, JUF completed this first phase of ICZ and planned the launch of the next phase for the coming school year. ICZ 2.0 will focus on building students’ academic capacity in STEEM—Science, Technology, Engineering and Math, plus English, a subject in which youth in the Partnership region lag behind the national average. Beginning with 17 of 24 local schools, the STEEM program will provide professional development for science teachers, offer a leadership track for high school students and reinforce formal studies with informal enrichment activities outside of school.

In 2019, Jewish Child & Family Services rebranded as JCFS Chicago. The refreshed brand includes a new logo that combines the Star of David and the Chicago star—representing the intersection of Jewish values that inspire the agency’s work and commitment to those in need—along with a multi-color palette signifying both the wide range of services JCFS Chicago offers and the diverse individuals it serves.

In the coming year, JCFS Chicago will launch a suicide prevention and support initiative—funded through the JUF Breakthrough Fund and Voices: The Chicago Jewish Teen Foundation—and expand its addiction services to begin addressing behavioral addiction. As the agency seeks to ensure that services are available for people with intellectual/developmental disabilities across the lifespan, its Duman Opportunity Center will newly focus on helping people with disabilities gain employment and access meaningful day programming.

Ground was broken this year on a new, luxury independent living community in Deerfield, to be managed by CJE SeniorLife. Scheduled to open in 2020 and located near the Weinberg Community, it will add another level to CJE’s broad continuum of care by providing a residence for healthy, active and independent older adults.

Reimagining lifelong learning, the agency has established CJE Academy, with well-known experts presenting about topics touching on physical, emotional, social, intellectual or financial well-being. In 2019, topics included holistic cardiology and how precision medicine is fighting cancer.

CJE also welcomed Executive Director Scott Hochstadt to lead Lieberman Center for Health and Rehabilitation in Skokie, its short-and long-term skilled care community.

“In addition to serving immigrants, JUF helps tens of thousands of disadvantaged Israelis break the cycle of poverty.”
In 2019, CJE Care Management provided hundreds of holistic in-home assessments for community members, through the generosity of The Albert and Lucille Delighter and Marcella Winston Foundation and Bernard Heerey Family Foundation, and arranged for needed home care, home-delivered meals and other key services.

Holocaust Community Services, an interagency program administered by CJE SeniorLife for Federation, served 2,000 survivors in 2019—1,600 of whom receive monthly financial assistance. In April, Holocaust Community Services hosted a deeply moving intergenerational Seder in partnership with Maot Chitim and the Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center, led by a group of eighth grade students from Bernard Zell Anshe Emet Day School.

JCC Chicago’s reimagined programming and renewed commitment to providing high-quality experiences saw community participation swell beyond 60,000 people over the last year. This was powered in part by the growing JCC Chicago Jewish Film Festival, which alone drew over 16,000 people to film screenings throughout the city and suburbs.

Welcoming a record 1,800 campers, JCC Camp Chi achieved a 25% enrollment growth over the last five years. In addition, JCC Chicago made an unprecedented push for inclusion at Camp Chi and ‘Z’ Frank Apachi J Camp, fueled by historic grants through the Foundation for Jewish Camp’s Yashar Initiative, helping to ensure that children of all abilities can have this incomparable, foundational Jewish experience.

CULTIVATING JEWISH IDENTITY AND CONNECTION

We are proud to continuously support Chicago’s exceptional Jewish Day Schools across denominations. JUF/Federation support makes possible tuition assistance for seven in 10 local Jewish Day School students; we also have provided nearly $80 million in loan guarantees for eight local Jewish Day Schools and High Schools.

In 2019, JUF’s Education Department (formerly known as the Community Foundation for Jewish Education) had a year of extraordinary growth.

We made great strides in helping to guide the community’s early childhood education providers toward sustainable excellence: Completing the first cohort of the Covenant-funded Chicago Teachers Project to recruit, train and place a new generation of Jewish early childhood educators; partnering with researchers at the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion to study the impact of Israel Education in early childhood education programs; hosting two national gatherings around family education in partnership with the Covenant Foundation and the Paradigm Project; and moving into the active phase of the Chicago Early Childhood Education Collaborative project, which seeks to centralize communal problem-solving in local Jewish early childhood education.

This also was a critical year in advancing the quality of Congregational Education, with JUF leading efforts to explore ideas and challenges around a countrywide change of approach to congregational education—and how Federations and other education agencies can guide that process. To enhance local efforts, JUF’s Education Department distributed $230,000 in Jewish Education and Congregational Enrichment and Incentive Program grants to Chicago area congregational schools.

After devoting this year to intentional pre-planning and community consultation, in FY20 JUF will launch the CHIdush: Innovation in Jewish Education initiative, focused on innovating congregational education in the 21st century and enhancing its effectiveness.

JUF took two groups totaling more than 200 teens to Israel on JUF’s signature Ta’am Yisrael 8th Grade Israel Trip, and made measurable progress in leveraging Ta’am trips as a catalyst to sparking alumni involvement in Jewish life.

“We are proud to continuously support Chicago’s exceptional Jewish Day Schools across denominations.”
during their high school years. Plans are underway for an Israel education trip for parents of Ta'am alumni who have never been to Israel themselves, building upon the impact of this experience for the entire family.

Thanks to a significant gift through the Fund for the Future, in the years to come JUF will greatly expand the reach of this transformative Jewish experience, with the goal of bringing 500 Chicago-area eighth-graders on Ta’am trips in 2023. This extraordinary gift also enables JUF to help seed sister programs in communities across the nation, working in tandem with local Jewish federations.

ENGAGING GENERATION NEXT

The past year abounded in effective new outreach to young Jews.

JUF/Federation extended first-time funding in 2019 to four youth movements and four young adult organizations. Over the course of the year, nearly 2,700 local teens were engaged in Jewish life and leadership through BBYO, NCSY, NFTY and USY. Another 6,900 young adults explored celebrating Shabbat through OneTable; engaged Jewishly in their neighborhoods through Moishe House; connected to Jewish communities while studying abroad through Kahal; and shared powerful, immersive trips to Israel as committed couples through Honeymoon Israel.

JUF’s Hillels of Illinois continues to pioneer impactful ways to engage Jewish students, creating dynamic, thriving Jewish communities on 16 campuses that enhance some 5,000 students’ Jewish social networks, sense of Jewish identity, and relationship with Israel.

Both Silverstein Base Hillels in Lincoln Park and in the South Loop have become major hubs for young adult Jewish life in Chicago and are serving as models for other cities across the nation. In its first year of operation, Loop Base Hillel quickly operated at full capacity, engaging 800 participants—half of whom are post-college. Plans are underway to open a third Base location near Loyola University in 2020, with the goal of five Base Hillels across the Chicago area engaging 4,000 emerging adults by 2024.

The eighth annual cohort of 36 Under 36 shines another spotlight on the exciting work being done by and for the Next Generation. This group of extraordinary twenty- and thirty-something Jewish leaders—honored by JUF’s Young Leadership Division and Oy!Chicago for making a difference in their professional work, volunteerism and community involvement—come from across the dynamic mosaic of local Jewish life. What unites them is their talent, generosity and vision for our community.

Jewish Chicago is fortunate indeed to have such exceptional young people embracing the mantle of Jewish peoplehood, strengthening our community today and building for a bright tomorrow.

All of this transformational work in Chicago, in Israel and around the world is only possible because of your generosity, which impacts millions of people at defining points in their lives and brings us together for good.

For over 100 years, the Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation has provided health and human services to those in need. In honor of its centennial anniversary, the Federation embarked on The Centennial Campaign, a capital and endowment campaign that anticipates community needs in the decades to come.

Together, the Federation and its affiliated agencies and beneficiaries have selected a wide range of projects that address the evolving needs of a diverse community, offering contributors an opportunity to make a meaningful gift at many levels.

The names of qualifying Centennial Campaign donors will be engraved in stone on our Centennial Wall in the Jewish Federation’s lobby, echoing the beauty, history and meaning of the walls of Jerusalem.

The Centennial Campaign offers a variety of gift-planning opportunities:

- Legacy Funds, the most flexible of the Centennial gifts and the only source of emergency resources, enable JUF/Federation to respond to crises and opportunities whenever and wherever they occur.

- Centennial Projects provide donors the opportunity to fund high-priority capital or programmatic initiatives. These include special naming opportunities.

- Campaign Continuity and Lion of Judah Endowment Funds sustain a donor’s annual gift to the Jewish United Fund in perpetuity, providing crucial support for Federation initiatives at home and abroad, today and for generations to come.

- Agency and Day School Endowment Gifts ensure that the network of services that are the lifeblood of our community will be available to future generations.

- Income for Life Funds provide a donor or his/her loved ones with income payments throughout their lifetimes and sustain the Jewish community for future generations.

Gifts as of 6/30/19
During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2019, The Center for Jewish Philanthropy distributed $103,117,519 to various charities. The monies allocated to these charities came from 1,022 supporting foundations, donor advised funds and special interest funds.

Distributions made from The Center for Jewish Philanthropy are based upon the recommendations and advice of the donors. These foundations and funds provide the donors and their families the opportunity to participate in the distribution of charitable grants in cooperation with Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation. The donors are also ensured that their charitable activities will continue beyond their lifetimes, while enjoying the maximum tax benefits in the current year.

Distributions for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2019 were $103,117,519.

The Center for Jewish Philanthropy

Deciding how to meet charitable obligations can be confusing and overwhelming. The Center for Jewish Philanthropy can help by reducing the complexity and paperwork associated with charitable giving, allowing donors to focus on their philanthropic goals and values.

Through these opportunities donors can build a lasting testament to their names, families and the causes they hold most dear. It’s a legacy that will carry on l’dor v’dor, from generation to generation.

Donor Advised Funds

Donors may establish a Donor Advised Fund in their names or in honor of a loved one with a $1,000 minimum contribution. The fund earns tax-free income while the donor recommends distributions to any approved public charity, either secular or religious.

Supporting Foundations

Individuals, corporations or families who commit substantial resources to philanthropy may establish a Supporting Foundation affiliated with the Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation. Functionally similar to a private family foundation but with more attractive benefits, a Supporting Foundation operates under a board of directors jointly appointed by the donor and the Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation, and enables the donor to engage future generations, fulfilling a philanthropic vision.

BEQUESTS

The Jewish Federation and Jewish United Fund gratefully recall those—may their memory be a blessing—who have left a gift to our community through a bequest to the Jewish Federation or Jewish United Fund.

During the year ended June 30, 2019, the Jewish Federation and Jewish United Fund were advised of the following bequests. The farsighted and dedicated people making these gifts have fulfilled their commitment to ensure the future welfare of the Jewish community in Chicago, Israel and throughout the world. Money received from these bequests is added to the Federation Endowment Fund. The income produced by the Endowment Fund will provide $14,277,531 to support our agencies during the coming year.

HOW TO LEAVE A BEQUEST

Below is suggested bequest language that may be incorporated in estate planning documents.

To establish a Legacy Fund gift for future and emergency needs:
I give $_________ (or specified property) or ____% of the residue of my estate to the Jewish Federation of Chicago as an unrestricted gift.

To establish an outright bequest to the Jewish United Fund:
I give $_________ (or specified property) or ____% of the residue of my estate to the Jewish United Fund of Chicago as an unrestricted gift.

To establish a JUF Annual Campaign Continuity Fund:
I give $_________ (or specified property) or ____% of the residue of my estate to the Jewish United Fund of Chicago as a Campaign Continuity Fund, the income therefrom to be distributed solely on an annual basis to the JUF Annual Campaign.

To establish a Lion of Judah Endowment:
I give $_________ (or specified property) or ____% of the residue of my estate to the Jewish United Fund of Chicago as a Lion of Judah Endowment gift, the income therefrom to be distributed solely on an annual basis to the Women’s Division of the JUF Annual Campaign. (Gift must be at least $100,000.)

To establish an endowment to benefit a specified area of interest:
I give $_________ (or specified property) or ____% of the residue of my estate to the Jewish Federation of Chicago, to be held for the benefit of _____________ (describe a special field of interest).

For more information, please contact Legacies & Endowments at 312.357.4853 or legacy@juf.org.
These remarkable leaders have distinguished themselves by the depth and breadth of their commitment to Jewish communal needs. They are the founders of our past and an inspiration for our future.
